

(d) The department may establish a state source verification program if the program is voluntary.

(i) A person may withdraw from a state source verification program at any time and the person's personal information must be deleted from the database.

(ii) Only the state veterinarian appointed pursuant to 81-1-301 and the veterinarian's staff may access information stored in the source verification program.

(iii) The department shall register a person's livestock in a source verification program only after the person applies for the program by submitting a signed application form, as prescribed by the department. An application form must include: a conspicuous notice the program is voluntary, a disclosure of the types of information collected under the program, and notice of the persons to which the information collected under the program may be disclosed.

Insert after "system." line 27
and before "(3)" line 28, page 1